Chapter 1 by Natalya Nugent

I woke and the sky outside was an odd shade of blue it was almost green. The moon was still out and dead leaves tumbled about the ground. I sighed and pulled on my clothes: a basic black t-shirt, a flannel that's probably five sizes too big, skinny jeans and I took my shoes from underneath my bed and I climbed out the window and into a pile of mulch. I ran across the yard and into the woods.
